Case No. 6:24-cv-00479-JAR

ORDER

Before the Court is the Unopposed Joint Motion to Sever Argonaut Insurance Company’s Crossclaims for Declaratory Judgment [Doc. No. 11], Marina Del Rey’s Answer to Crossclaim [Doc. No. 22], and Marina Del Rey’s Related Counterclaims [Doc. No. 46], hereafter the “Motion to Sever,” filed on the 20th of June, 2025. See Doc. No. 53. As styled, the Motion to Sever is unopposed. Pursuant to FED. R. CIV. P. 42(b), and for good cause shown as required thereby, the Motion to Sever is GRANTED. Thus, the Argonaut Insurance Company’s Crossclaims for Declaratory Judgment [Doc. No. 11], Marina Del Rey’s Answer to Crossclaim [Doc. No. 22], and Marina Del Rey’s Related Counterclaims [Doc. No. 46], defined in the Motion to Sever as the “First Party Claims,” shall be severed from the remaining claims in the above-captioned lawsuit, defined in the Motion to Sever as the “Third-Party Claims.” The First Party Claims and Third-Party Claims shall receive separate scheduling orders and trial settings, to be ordered by this Court, but shall remain under the same case number, 24-cv-00479-JAR.

IT IS SO ORDERED this the ____ of _____, 2025.
